Phil -- I sent the wrong version of the draft briefing paper last night and can only send a pdf of what I printed out b/c I saved it to a temporary file folder (unfortunately). I'm not sure that I'll be sending the version below to our front office, but I would use the info as my talking points. So I would really appreciate knowing if I've wildly mis-characterized anything. It's not as precise a description as you gave me, but I wanted to be concise if possible.
